

“America’s Premiere Lawyers” — Raymond Hamlin selected for radio interview which was aired on major air-lines globally. Also appeared in Fortune Magazine (3/3/08) and Business Week (5/14/2008).

Hunt, Hamlin & Ridley was profiled in the December 1999, New Jersey Law Journal and was identified as one of New Jersey’s leading Minority law firms.

Oxford Roundtable—Raymond Hamlin invited to attend Oxford University, England at their premiere roundtable discussion on humanitarian rights.

HIGHLIGHTS

The firm’s commitment to the law and their successful representation of clients has enabled the partners to appear on various television and radio news programs, to provide expert commentary in both criminal and civil matters. The partners have also appeared in numerous articles in the Star Ledger and the New York Times Newspapers.

Civil Rights and Employment Cases

- Discrimination Lawsuit victory against Newark Burger King for employment discrimination
- Janet Evans vs Port Authority of NY/NJ ~ Federal Civil Rights and Discrimination. HHR won a jury award of $1.48 million.
- Marlene Peterson-Smith vs. NJ Transit ~ Civil Rights and Discrimination. HHR won a jury award of $500,000

Entertainment Law and Contract Disputes

- DJ Wendy Williams in her Federal Law Suit against HOT 97 radio
- Regena Thomas ~ former NJ Secretary of State. HHR was able to exonerate Ms. Thomas of ethics violations from a formal inquiry by the State of NJ.

Criminal Cases

- Representation of Terrance Everett, a young man wrongfully accused of killing Orange Police Officer Joyce
- Carnegie. Mr. Everett was freed and completely exonerated after he had formally charged with her murder and had bail set at $1,000,000.00.
- HHR also won a settlement against Essex County Prosecutor’s office for $800,000 for the wrongful arrest.
- Expert opinion after verdict of Amadu Dialo case ~ UPN9 News

Personal Injury and Medical Malpractice Cases

- Omar Aziz v. Flash Express Trucking ~ Wrongful Death Case - Settlement $500,000.00

